Visual presentation of the different options:

The screenshot shows the website layout with several red boxes highlighting specific areas:

- Header: A wide banner image of the Messe München building with flags.
- Display 1: A large grey rectangular area below the header, labeled "Display 1" and "728 x 90".
- WiFi Access: A content area with a blue header "WiFi Access" and a blue box containing instructions: "1. Browser requirements: JavaScript and Cookies enabled." and "2. Login once. Use the service for the entire fair." with a "More help" link.
- Display 2: A grey rectangular area to the right of the WiFi section, labeled "Display 2" and "300 x 250".
- Display 3: A smaller grey rectangular area below Display 2, labeled "Display 3" and "180 x 150".
- Mid-frame: A white box at the bottom right containing a "SURF SAFELY" section with five bullet points: "Only visit websites that you can trust.", "Never provide personal data.", "Prefer encrypted websites.", "Only use Apps you can trust.", and "Always keep your operating system up to date."

At the bottom of the page, there is a footer with links for "Terms and Conditions", "Imprint", "Data protection", and "Login", along with the copyright notice "© Messe München GmbH 2016".
