About the Award

"The future of mobility is electric, connected and autonomous!

This is the motto of the market platform eMove360° – International Trade Fair, News Magazine and Digital Hub for Mobility 4.0 – electric – connected – autonomous. The most important prize on this topic, the eMove360° Award, is also completely dedicated to the topics of electric mobility and connected & autonomous driving.

As organisers and publishers of the eMove360°, we have made it our task to award prizes to the best products and most interesting projects in this field in an international competition. The eMove360° Award for Electromobility & Autonomous Driving is now in its fifth edition and has become the leading prize for electromobility and autonomous driving in recent years.

You too can take your chance to win! Take part in the eMove360° Award and gain great exposure in the press and the public. The award ceremony will take place in a unique ambience on the evening of 05 October 2022.
